Media Release
April 2024

AUSTRALIAN INTERIOR DESIGN AWARDS ANNOUNCES 2024 SHORTLIST

The Australian Interior Design Awards has announced the shortlist for its 2024 program, featuring a record-breaking 222 projects.

Standing as the pinnacle of Australia's industry-based design accolades, the Australian Interior Design Awards celebrates interior design excellence, with the awards holding both national and international significance. The esteemed program, now in its 21st year, is a partnership between the Design Institute of Australia (DIA) and Architecture Media's Artichoke. It provides a platform to showcase Australian interior design projects spanning residential, commercial, and public sectors, from both established and emerging designers.

As the Australian design and architecture industry continues to evolve, so too does the level of creativity and innovation within each project submission for the 2024 Australian Interior Design Awards program. The diverse shortlist of projects provides a unique narrative and perspective, reflective of the contemporary industry landscape, showcasing authenticity, character, and material innovation within each project's respective field.

This year's jury, convened by Geraldine Maher, Director of Maher Design, is as follows:

- Richard Coulson, Director, COX Architecture (QLD)
- Madeline Sewall, Director of Houses, Breathe Architecture (VIC)
- Beatrix Rowe, Principal, Beatrix Rowe Interior Design (VIC)
- Isabelle Toland, Co-Director and Co-Founder, Aileen Sage Architects (NSW)
- Adele Winteridge, Founder and Design Director, Foolscap Studio (VIC)
- David Flack, Principal, Flack Studio (VIC)
- Paul Foskett, Principal and Head of Interior Design APAC, Populous (VIC)
- Katherine Ashe, Director, Vittino Ashe Architects (WA)

The full list of awarded and commended projects will be presented at the Gala Presentation Dinner, which will be held at the Sofitel Wentworth in Sydney on Friday 14th June 2024.
